

LIBBI WALLACE is the new maitre'd and restaurant supervisor at Tukka Restaurant. She was born and educated in Brisbane and is a tertiary-trained hospitality marketing professional. Ms Wallace has spent the past eight years working in the industry in Brisbane and gained valuable hands on training in many Brisbane venues. Her passion for good food and exceptional service drove her to gain professional qualifications and expand her experience into marketing within the industry. She joined the team at Tukka with the aim to take the award-winning venue to another level.

